

Application for a Business School Executive MBA Financial award for charitable organisations

Hull University Business School is pleased to offer one full financial award to cover the tuition fees of a prospective student currently working in the charitable sector applying for the Hull Executive MBA (part-time) programme. The scholarship covers the full cost of the MBA tuition fees, for the normal duration of the programme (two years).

To be eligible applicants must

- work for a registered charitable organisation
- have received an offer to study on the Executive MBA
- have not been awarded any other financial award
- be able to commence their studies in September 2017
- be a UK/EU national

This will be awarded on the basis of professional and academic excellence.

Deadlines

Applications must reach us before the deadline of Monday 4 September 2017. The successful applicants will be notified by Monday 11 September 2017.

How to apply

Applicants for the above award must submit the following

- this completed application form (with their application code entered)
- an unconditional offer to study on the Executive MBA for September 2017
- an essay of no more than 1,000 words demonstrating how they will contribute to and benefit from the Hull MBA, focusing on their achievements as a professional manager as well as academic qualifications. Applicants should also evaluate the skills they need to develop in order to be an effective global manager and how the MBA will assist in this.

(Please note that applications submitted without full documentation will not be considered)
