

Application for Women in Leadership Executive MBA Financial Award

As part of our commitment to support women in business, Hull University Business School is pleased to offer two full financial awards to cover the tuition fees of prospective female students applying for the Hull Executive MBA (part-time) programme. The award, aimed at supporting women to achieve greater representation in leadership at a senior level, covers the cost of the MBA tuition fees, for the normal duration of the programme (two years).

To be eligible applicants must

- have an offer to study on the Executive MBA
- have not been awarded any other financial award
- be able to commence their studies in September 2017
- be a UK/EU national

This will be awarded on the basis of professional and academic excellence.

Deadlines

Applications must reach us before the deadline of Monday 4 September 2017. The successful applicants will be notified by Monday 11 September 2017.

How to apply

Applicants for the above scholarship must submit the following
