

Graduation

Class of 2026

CONNEXIN LIVE, HULL
JULY 2026

UNIVERSITY
of HULL

A low-angle, upward-looking photograph of graduates in black gowns and white shirts, throwing their black mortarboard caps into the air. The caps are suspended in mid-air against a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. A large, yellow, textured building is visible in the background. The graduates' faces are partially visible at the edges of the frame, looking upwards with expressions of joy and accomplishment.

This isn't the end,
it's just the beginning...

Your exciting Hull alumni story starts here

The alumni team wishes you huge congratulations as you celebrate the culmination of all your hard work.

Well done - you did it!

We're so proud of what you've achieved so far, and we know it won't stop here. Hull alumni around the world are making a difference in their communities and workplaces, and for the people around them. Whatever the future holds, you can make your mark too, and you will be in great company when you do.

As you start out on the next chapter, remember you won't have to write it alone.

With a global community of more than 180,000 alumni, wherever you go you'll be sure to meet someone else whose future also started in Hull - and we can help you find them.

You're now part of an international family connected by this University.

We have earned a reputation over the years of being the friendly university, an inclusive and safe place for students to thrive, evolve and succeed. It means something to be a graduate of this institution, and you will find there is a shared desire to support and look after our own and each other.

While you're moving forward in your career and taking your life to the next level, we'll be here to help you when you need it with careers advice, access to our facilities, mentoring and so much more. Whether you wish to register for our online masterclasses, join a professional network to meet other alumni in your chosen field, or apply for volunteer activities - we can help. Or perhaps you just wish to remain connected with the University of Hull by downloading a podcast or attending our social events. However you want to be involved, you are always welcome.

We hate goodbyes!

No matter how your life and career progresses, we'd love for you to keep in touch and keep us up to date. We know your old uni isn't the first place you'd think of when changing address or email details but try to let us know when you have a change of contact details as we'd hate to lose touch with you. Just as those who went before you can serve to open doors and support your career now, you in turn will inspire future generations of Hull graduates. We want to be able to share your stories and follow your successes with continued pride.

Enjoy the celebrations, walk across that stage with pride and be sure to say hello to the alumni team if you see us. We'll be trying to say hello and congratulations to as many of you as we can, and we'll be in touch again soon. But for now, enjoy today - you've earned it.

You can also follow us on a variety of socials to see what alumni activities are coming up.

The Chancellor of the University of Hull

The Rt Hon Alan Johnson

(LLD)

The Right Honourable Alan Johnson was General Secretary of the Communication Workers Union before entering Parliament as Labour MP for Hull West and Hessle in 1997. He held a variety of cabinet positions in the Blair and Brown governments including Home Secretary, Health Secretary and Education Secretary. He also served as Shadow Chancellor of the Exchequer under Miliband. Alan retired before the 2017 general election after 20 years as an MP.

His childhood memoir 'This Boy' was published by Bantam Press in 2013. It won the Royal Society of Literature Ondaatje Prize and the Orwell Prize, Britain's top political writing award. His second volume of memoirs, 'Please, Mister Postman', was published in 2014 and won the National Book Club award for Best Biography. The final book in his memoir trilogy, 'The Long and Winding Road', was published in 2016 and won the Parliamentary Book Award for Best Memoir. A fourth memoir about his love of music, 'In My Life – A Music Memoir', was published in 2018 followed by his first novel, 'The Late Train to Gipsy Hill' in 2021. His subsequent novels include 'One of Our Ministers is Missing' and 'Death on the Thames'. Alan's latest work, the biography 'Harold Wilson: Twentieth Century Man: The Prime Minister Series' was published in late 2024.

Alan has appeared regularly on television including the BBC's 'This Week' with Andrew Neil and Michael Portillo and alongside Steph McGovern on Channel 4's 'Steph's Packed Lunch'.

He was appointed Chancellor of the University of Hull in June 2023.

He lives in East Yorkshire with his wife Carolyn.

A message from the Vice-Chancellor

Professor Tom Lawson

BA, MA, PhD, FRHistS

I would like to take a moment to offer my warmest congratulations to all those graduating today. This ceremony marks a significant milestone, an occasion to reflect with pride on the dedication, resilience, and effort that have brought you to this point.

Today is not simply the conclusion of your time at university; it is the gateway to what comes next. For some, it represents the start of exciting careers, while for others it opens paths to further study or professional development. Whatever direction you choose, this moment stands as a powerful beginning.

It also signals a new chapter in your connection with the University of Hull. The University takes great pride in its graduates, and we are delighted to welcome you into our alumni community. I encourage you to stay engaged, keep in touch, and take part in the many opportunities our alumni network offers.

You leave here having made a valuable investment in your future, equipped with knowledge, skills, and assurance. As you move forward, we hope you do so with a sense of purpose and ambition, ready to make a positive difference and help shape a more inclusive and promising world.

As a University of Hull graduate, you will have access to a range of benefits. These include a contribution towards fees for eligible postgraduate taught courses, lifelong careers advice, continued access to campus facilities, including the library, and the opportunity to attend a range of alumni events in the UK, around the world and online.

You'll also receive our monthly alumni bulletin with chances to get involved, networking opportunities, events and other University and alumni stories.

The strength of our University of Hull community lies in its diversity: different people with different lived experiences, at different stages in their lives and careers. Wherever life takes you, you remain part of our community, and we look forward to keeping in touch and hearing from you.

Lifelong careers advice and a contribution to fees on eligible facilities post-graduate taught courses

Graduation signifies the beginning of your career journey, so we hope it helps you to know that as a University of Hull graduate, you can access careers support for life! You can find out more about your lifelong careers support on page 86 of this booklet

If you want to boost your career potential, you may want to think about further study. If you progress from studying an undergraduate degree at Hull to an eligible taught master's degree in 2026/27, you will get a 20% scholarship against the cost of your tuition fees. This is also available to alumni who studied for an undergraduate degree at the University of Hull in previous years and would like to return to study.

Ongoing access to campus facilities

Our doors are always open and alumni are warmly encouraged to continue to make full use of the facilities on our campus including:

- Brynmor Jones Library (Associate Member status, with option for full borrowing rights)
- Students' Union, cafes and bars
- Theatres (Gulbenkian Centre and Middleton Hall)
- Allam Sport Centre

Welcome to the Class of 2026

A message from Sir Paul Grant

President of the Hull Alumni Association

With enormous pride in our University and in your achievements, I congratulate you on your graduation. You have worked extremely hard to attain your degree, and I wish you every success as you join our graduate community of more than 180,000 alumni worldwide.

As President of the Hull Alumni Association, having graduated in 1978 with a BA in History, I know the lasting connection we have with our University. We may finish our studies and move on to different places and opportunities, but our experiences at Hull stay with us and our relationship with the University remains.

Over the years, I have encountered so many fellow Hull alumni in many different walks of life. Some I have met in a professional capacity, others I have met through our shared Hull connection at networking events or at social gatherings. I have also been lucky enough to have returned to campus numerous times to participate in official functions or simply to take part in events and activities at the University of Hull.

In that time, I have spoken with other graduates who have also kept that connection going, either by attending events, making use of the Hull connection for their professional networking, volunteering and supporting current students, or simply by visiting campus and making use of the facilities. The café, bar, library and sports facilities are all open to graduates.

More than the facilities and the buildings, though, it is the people that make that Hull connection so meaningful. This year over 1,000 hours of volunteering have been recorded by our alumni – either offering advice to students, giving a talk at an event, sharing their career story for a profile or encouraging others to make the University of Hull their place of study.

There are so many ways that your University of Hull experience will continue as you go forward, and there many different motivations for why people want to continue giving back. To the right are a few quotes from alumni who are volunteering, sharing their reasons for doing so.

We'd love to hear from you this year: how could the University of Hull continue to play a part in your life? Let us know your thoughts by emailing alumni@hull.ac.uk

‘Hull is a great place to study, and I have very fond memories of my time there. The staff are second to none and can’t do enough to help you, they are a massive part of the reason I wanted to continue being involved. They are some of the most knowledgeable people I have ever met and genuinely care about each and every student. Everyone is so welcoming, and I thoroughly enjoy every visit I make.’

Will Jubb

BSc Marine & Freshwater Biology 2018,
PhD Fisheries Studies 2023

‘I have harnessed an amazing connection that has evolved into an international kinship and global citizenship which I would not trade for anything! The University of Hull has remarkably become my family, home, and happy place!’

Busola Oladipo-Bamidele

MA in Education 2023

‘I feel a really positive connection to the University and its community. As a student, I recall the overwhelming sense of friendliness and that aspect of Hull hasn’t changed a bit!’

Liz Sproat

BA English 1994

Honorary Graduands

Hon Professor Neville Reyner CBE

DL Hon. DLitt BSc, MBA, CEng, FIET FRSA FloD

Doctor of Science, Honoris Causa

Ceremony 1

Monday 13 July, 10am

One of the founding members of the Semiconductor Industry in the UK and Ireland, Neville started his working life as a coal face electrician in Burnley, Lancashire. His executive career progressed to that of Executive Vice President of Mitsubishi Electric UK responsible for £250 million, where he took Semiconductor from start up to over £150 million over 15 years.

After life as an executive Neville became Deputy Chairman of the East of England Development Agency and while there created the Centre for Integrated Photonics. He also chaired the Luton/Vauxhall partnership which re-trained, re-skilled and re-employed around 2,500 workers made redundant by the Vauxhall decision to cease car manufacturing in Luton, resulting in his CBE. After this, he became involved in the Chamber of Commerce movement, starting as Chairman of Hertfordshire Chamber moving on to President/Chairman of the British Chambers of Commerce in London, Deputy President of EuroChambre in Brussels. He also sat on the European Commission Cluster Policy Group. Since then he has held a number of Non-Executive positions.

Neville considers education to be fundamental in his journey, from a HNC at Burnley, BSc at Leeds, MBA at Cranfield and on to a CEng and FIET. A believer in Industrial Advisory Boards he helped create the IAB in the Faculty of Science and Engineering at the University of Hull.

Professor Philip Lord Norton of Louth

BA, MA, PhD, FRSA, FRHistS, FAcSS, FPSA

Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa

Ceremony 7

Wednesday 15 July, 10am

Philip, Lord Norton of Louth is Professor of Government, and Director of the Centre for Legislative Studies, at the University of Hull. Educated at the Universities of Sheffield and Pennsylvania, he was appointed to the University of Hull in 1977 and promoted to professor in 1985, making him, at 35, the youngest professor of politics in the country.

His publications include 37 books (52 if new editions are included) and over 300 book chapters and scholarly articles. He is founder editor of The Journal of Legislative Studies, Chair of the History of Parliament Trust and the Higher Education Commission, and President of the Study of Parliament Group.

Elevated to the peerage in 1998 in recognition of his expertise in constitutional issues, he was the first Chair of the House of Lords Constitution Committee and chaired the Conservative Party Commission to Strengthen Parliament. A Fellow of several learned societies, he is also an Honorary Freeman of the City of Hull and holds honorary degrees from the Universities of Lincoln and Derby. In 2022 he was awarded the Sir Isaiah Berlin Prize.

He has been described in The House Magazine as 'our greatest living expert on Parliament.'

Barbara Mills KC

Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa

Ceremony 7

Wednesday 15 July, 10am

Barbara graduated from the University of Hull in 1989. She is a specialist family law barrister based in London. She qualified as a barrister in 1990 and was appointed a KC in 2020. As well as being an arbitrator and mediator, Barbara sits as a Deputy High Court judge and is the joint head of chambers of 4PB – the leading family law set of chambers in England and Wales.

In 2025, Barbara became the first Black and first person of colour to Chair the Bar Council of England and Wales, the representative body of the 18,000 barristers in England and Wales. She was also the first specialist family practitioner to be Chair for over 35 years.

During her time as Chair of the Bar of England and Wales in 2025, Barbara worked tirelessly to raise the profile of family law and to support the Government in its mission to halve violence against women and girls. She also made strides to ensure that wellbeing was recognised as a skill and a core part of effective practice management, while continuing to drive forward progress in equality, diversity and inclusion.

Rt Hon Baroness Virginia Bottomley of Nettlestone

PC, JP, DL, BA, MSc, Hon LLD, Hon DSc, Hon DUniv

Doctor of the University, Honoris Causa

Proud history of Teacher Education

From its founding, the University of Hull has had educational-development at its core. Adult Education was one of the founding departments of the University, coming formally into existence on 1st January 1928. The University's first appointed Professor was in Adult Education.

The Department offered the majority of its programmes to local students, mostly off-campus and often part-time, with large programmes in Beverley, York, Grimsby, Scunthorpe and Scarborough and smaller offerings, often in response to student demand, sometimes through partnership with the Workers Educational Association, in up to a hundred villages in East Yorkshire and on the south bank of the Humber. The School of Education at the University of Hull still engages with an extensive network of Colleges across the region, enabling the delivery of degrees to students in their own locality and with a very similar reach and has an extensive series of partnerships with a very diverse range of organisations.

Teacher education has its roots in delivery both in Hull and at the Scarborough campus. Initially intending teachers gained a Certificate in Education (Cert Ed) before moves in the 1980s to offer undergraduate degrees in Education notably through a Bachelor of Education (B Ed) degree. Over the years, teacher education developed to offer qualifications across the primary, secondary and tertiary phases of Education.

Most recently, the School of Education has taken an innovative approach to preparing future teachers through two-year accelerated degrees in both Primary and Secondary Teaching Studies, which prepare students to undertake a PGCE. This is one facet of the work of a School of Education that offers undergraduate and Masters level programmes across a broad range of areas including Early Childhood, Education Studies, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), Youth Work, Community Engagement, Social Justice, Leadership and Management and Special Educational Needs Disabilities and Inclusion.

In September 2023, the first Rosalind Hollis Professor of Education for Social Justice was appointed. This post recognises a past graduate of the University, who gave a generous bequest from her estate. Rosalind G. Hollis (1931 – 2021) studied Mathematics at the University of Hull, undertaking teaching practice at Hunmanby Hall Methodist Boarding School in Filey in her final year. Throughout her adult life she was involved in work with children through both teaching and volunteering, authoring a dozen textbooks on Maths education.

In order to celebrate our history and heritage in the field of Education, the University is granting the award of Honorary Bachelor of Education to those who attained a Certificate in Education from the University of Hull in the 1980s and earlier. These students would, in later times, have been awarded a full undergraduate degree, and we recognise and celebrate their studies and subsequent achievements. Those receiving an honorary degree have variously made significant and sustained contributions to their communities, to schools and settings and to industry in the UK and around the world during the past six decades.

Careers Service

Lifelong Careers Support: Your Bright Future Awaits.

Whether you have a clear career path in mind or are still exploring your options, the University of Hull's Careers Service offers lifelong support, even after graduation.

As alumni, you have ongoing access to one-on-one appointments with a Careers Consultant to help you shape a successful future, wherever you are in your journey. You're also welcome to attend our workshops and Careers Fairs, held each autumn and spring.

Looking to refine your CV, strengthen your interview skills, or get impartial advice on your next career steps? We're here to support you every step of the way.

You'll also have access to Hubble Careers – the University's career's platform, which will enable you to:

- Schedule careers appointments
- Register for careers fairs and workshops
- Connect with a broad network of graduate recruiters
- Apply to exclusive job opportunities
- Access employability guides and resources

The University robes

The academic dress of gown, cap and hood, which is worn by graduates, University officers and members of the academic procession, dates from medieval times.

Officers' dress

The Chancellor, Pro-Chancellors and Vice-Chancellor wear robes of blue damask silk, trimmed with gold lace. The Chancellor's sleeves are decorated with traditional ornamentation. Their caps are square, of black silk velvet, trimmed with a gold lace band and with gold bullion buttons and black (Vice-Chancellor) or gold tassels. Pro-Vice-Chancellors wear the dress robes of their degrees and square caps of black silk velvet, trimmed with silver lace bands with silver bullion buttons and black silk tassels.

Academic dress

Foundation degree candidates wear black gowns of the undergraduate pattern with diploma hoods, which are a different pattern from those of the Bachelors and Masters. Certificate and Diploma candidates (including Certificate in Education candidates) wear gowns of the undergraduate pattern. Bachelors and Masters wear black gowns with different sleeve styles depending on the degree being conferred. Their hoods are black and lined with the University silk – turquoise blue taffeta. The yoke of the Masters' hood is square and edged with the University silk. The hood of the Masters of Music is cream silk brocade. Their caps are black cloth mortar boards with black silk tassels. Doctorates in full dress wear a claret-coloured robe and hood, and a round cap of black cloth with cord and tassels, which are the same colour as the robe. Doctors of Music wear a robe and hood of cream silk brocade. The sleeves and the fronts of both robes are of the University silk. Higher Doctorates and Doctors honoris causa wear a scarlet robe and hood, with sleeves and fronts of the University silk. Their cap is round, of black velvet, with cord and tassels, which are the same colour as the robe. Professional Graduate Certificate in Education candidates wear a black gown and mortar board, black hood with three-inch turquoise blue edging. Postgraduate Certificate in Education candidates wear a black gown and mortar board, black hood with turquoise blue lining.

Hull York Medical School robes

Undergraduates and Masters wear black University of Hull gowns at the graduation ceremony. The caps worn are square, of the mortar-board pattern, of black cloth with black silk tassel.

BMedSci candidates wear a black gown of the undergraduate pattern with a black hood lined with turquoise blue silk, cowl edge faced inside with dark blue silk. BSc MedSci candidates wear a black gown of the undergraduate pattern with a black hood lined with dark blue silk, cowl edge faced inside with turquoise blue and orange silk. MBBS candidates wear a black gown of the undergraduate pattern with a black hood lined with dark blue silk, cowl edge faced inside with turquoise blue and orange silk. MSc (Taught and Research Masters) candidates wear a black Hull Masters postgraduate gown. The hood is full shaped with a black outer, lined with orange and faced inside cowl edge with turquoise blue. The cape edge is faced outside with dark blue and the neck band is black bound with turquoise blue on the top edge and dark blue on the bottom edge. MPhil (Research Masters) candidates wear a black Hull Masters postgraduate gown. The hood is a full shape with maroon outer lining and bound with dark blue. The inside cowl edge is faced with turquoise blue and the neck band is bound with maroon with turquoise blue on the top edge and dark blue on the bottom edge.

PhD (Research Doctorate) candidates wear a maroon gown with facings of dark blue and orange and sleeves faced with dark blue and top edged with orange. The hood is a full shape with a maroon outer, lined and bound with dark blue. The cowl edge is faced inside with turquoise blue and maroon and the neck band maroon, bound with turquoise blue on the top edge and dark blue on the bottom edge. The cap is a maroon bonnet with turquoise blue cord and tassels. MD (Taught Doctorate) candidates wear a dark blue gown with facings of turquoise blue and orange and sleeves faced with turquoise blue and top edged with orange. The hood is a full shape with a dark blue outer, lined and bound with turquoise blue. The cowl edge is faced inside with orange, and the neck band is bound with dark blue with orange on the top edge and turquoise blue on the bottom edge. The cap is a dark blue cloth bonnet with turquoise blue cord and tassels.

Did you know that 30 plastic bottles are recycled per gown?

All of our black ceremonial gowns are made from certified recycled materials, saving 30 bottles from polluting the earth with every gown made.

The ceremonial brandmark

Our coat of arms is a hallmark of quality and a badge of honour. A symbol for a time-trusted education that prepares you for doing what's right and true: for you, for society, for the world.

Originally designed in 1928, our coat of arms has been updated for our upcoming centenary and beyond. The emblems of old are still here, and each has its own meaning: the torch embodies our motto Lampada Ferens, translated as 'carrying the light of learning'; the dove is a sign of peace and comes from the arms of Thomas Ferens, one of our founding benefactors; the wave acknowledges the importance of our home on the Humber; the ducal coronet comes from the coat of arms for the City of Hull; the rose represents Yorkshire; and the fleur-de-lys symbolises Lincolnshire.
