Class of 2025

CONNEXIN LIVE, HULL

JULY 2025

UNIVERSITY
of HULL

This isn't the end,
it's just the beginning...

Your exciting Hull alumni story starts here

The alumni team wishes you huge congratulations as you celebrate the culmination of all your hard work.

Well done - you did it!

We're so proud of what you've achieved so far, and we know it won't stop here. Hull alumni around the world are making a difference in their communities and workplaces, and for the people around them. Whatever the future holds, you can make your mark too, and you will be in great company when you do.

As you start out on the next chapter, remember you won't have to write it alone.

With a global community of more than 180,000 alumni, wherever you go you'll be sure to meet someone else whose future also started in Hull - and we can help you find them.

You're now part of an international family connected by this University.

We have earned a reputation over the years of being the friendly university, an inclusive and safe place for students to thrive, evolve and succeed. It means something to be a graduate of this institution, and you will find there is a shared desire to support and look after our own and each other.

While you're moving forward in your career and taking your life to the next level, we'll be here to help you when you need it with careers advice, access to our facilities, mentoring and so much more. Whether you wish to register for our online masterclasses, join a professional network to meet other alumni in your chosen field, or apply for volunteer activities - we can help. Or perhaps you just wish to remain connected with the University of Hull by downloading a podcast or attending our social events. However you want to be involved, you are always welcome.

We hate goodbyes!

No matter how your life and career progresses, we'd love for you to keep in touch and keep us up to date. We know your old uni isn't the first place you'd think of when changing address or email details but try to let us know when you have a change of contact details as we'd hate to lose touch with you. Just as those who went before you can serve to open doors and support your career now, you in turn will inspire future generations of Hull graduates. We want to be able to share your stories and follow your successes with continued pride.

Enjoy the celebrations, walk across that stage with pride and be sure to say hello to the alumni team if you see us. We'll be trying to say hello and congratulations to as many of you as we can, and we'll be in touch again soon. But for now, enjoy today - you've earned it.

You can also follow us on a variety of socials to see what alumni activities are coming up.

The Chancellor of the University of Hull

The Rt Hon Alan Johnson

(LLD)

The Right Honourable Alan Johnson was General Secretary of the Communication Workers Union before entering Parliament as Labour MP for Hull West and Hessle in 1997. He held a variety of cabinet positions in the Blair and Brown governments including Home Secretary, Health Secretary and Education Secretary. He also served as Shadow Chancellor of the Exchequer under Miliband. Alan retired before the 2017 general election after 20 years as an MP.

His childhood memoir 'This Boy' was published by Bantam Press in 2013. It won the Royal Society of Literature Ondaatje Prize and the Orwell Prize, Britain's top political writing award. His second volume of memoirs, 'Please, Mister Postman', was published in 2014 and won the National Book Club award for Best Biography. The final book in his memoir trilogy, 'The Long and Winding Road', was published in 2016 and won the Parliamentary Book Award for Best Memoir. A fourth memoir about his love of music, 'In My Life – A Music Memoir', was published in 2018 followed by his first novel, 'The Late Train to Gipsy Hill' in 2021. His subsequent novels include 'One of Our Ministers is Missing' and 'Death on the Thames'. Alan's latest work, the biography 'Harold Wilson: Twentieth Century Man: The Prime Minister Series' was published in late 2024.

Alan has appeared regularly on television including the BBC's 'This Week' with Andrew Neil and Michael Portillo and alongside Steph McGovern on Channel 4's 'Steph's Packed Lunch'.

He was appointed Chancellor of the University of Hull in June 2023.

He lives in East Yorkshire with his wife Carolyn.

A message from the Vice-Chancellor

Professor David Petley

BSc, AKC, PhD, FRGS, CGeog, FHEA

I should like to take this opportunity to congratulate most wholeheartedly all those graduating today. The graduation ceremony is the crowning event of your academic studies; a day when you can look back on your years of hard work and intellectual endeavour with a sense of real and justified achievement.

Your graduation ceremony, however, signals not the end of something, but rather the beginning. For many it opens exciting new career prospects, whereas for others it may be the key to the pursuit of a higher degree or professional qualification. It is also the beginning of a new relationship with the University and I should like to welcome you as alumni of the University of Hull, and invite you to keep in touch and participate enthusiastically in our alumni events. The University is very proud of its alumni, as its alumni can be proud of its alma mater.

You have made an excellent investment in your future and should venture forward with the knowledge that you have received a first-rate education and the confidence that you are ready to contribute towards shaping a fairer and brighter future for us all.

As a University of Hull graduate, you will have access to a range of benefits. These include a contribution towards fees for eligible postgraduate taught courses, lifelong careers advice, continued access to campus facilities, including the library, and the opportunity to attend a range of alumni events in the UK, around the world and online.

You'll also receive our monthly bulletin with chances to get involved, networking opportunities, events, and other University and alumni stories.

The strength of our University of Hull community lies in its diversity: different people with different lived experiences, at different stages in their lives and careers. Whatever you have got going on, you are an asset to our community, and we look forward to keeping in touch and hearing from you.

Lifelong careers advice and a contribution to fees on eligible post-graduate taught courses

Graduation signifies the beginning of your career journey, so we hope it helps you to know that as a University of Hull graduate, you can access careers support for life! You can find out more about your lifelong careers support on page 18 of this booklet

If you want to boost your career potential, you may want to think about further study. If you progress from studying an undergraduate degree at Hull to an eligible taught master's degree in 2025/26, you will get a 20% scholarship against the cost of your tuition fees. This is also available to alumni who studied for an undergraduate degree at the University of Hull in previous years and would like to return to study.

Ongoing access to campus facilities

Our doors are always open and alumni are warmly encouraged to continue to make full use of the facilities on our campus, including

- The Brynmor Jones Library (Associate Member status, with option for full borrowing rights)
- Students' Union, cafes and bars
- Theatres (Gulbenkian Centre, Middleton Hall)
- The Sports and Fitness Centre

Welcome to the Class of 2025

A message from Sir Paul Grant

President of the Hull Alumni Association

With enormous pride in our University and in your achievements, I congratulate you on your graduation. You have worked extremely hard to attain your degree, and I wish you every success as you join our graduate community of more than 180,000 alumni worldwide.

As President of the Hull Alumni Association, having graduated in 1978 with a BA in History, I know the lasting connection we have with our University. We may finish our studies and move on to different places and opportunities, but our experiences at Hull stay with us and our relationship with the University remains.

Over the years, I have encountered so many fellow Hull alumni in many different walks of life. Some I have met in a professional capacity, others I have met through our shared Hull connection at networking events or at social gatherings. I have also been lucky enough to have returned to campus numerous times to participate in official functions or simply to take part in events and activities at the University of Hull.

In that time, I have spoken with other graduates who have also kept that connection going, either by attending events, making use of the Hull connection for their professional networking, volunteering and supporting current students, or simply by visiting campus and making use of the facilities. The café, bar, library and sports facilities are all open to graduates.

More than the facilities and the buildings, though, it is the people that make that Hull connection so meaningful. This year over 1,000 hours of volunteering have been recorded by our alumni – either offering advice to students, giving a talk at an event, sharing their career story for a profile or encouraging others to make the University of Hull their place of study.

There are so many ways that your University of Hull experience will continue as you go forward, and there many different motivations for why people want to continue giving back. To the right are a few quotes from alumni who are volunteering, sharing their reasons for doing so.

We'd love to hear from you this year: how could the University of Hull continue to play a part in your life? Let us know your thoughts by emailing alumni@hull.ac.uk

'Hull is a great place to study, and I have very fond memories of my time there. The staff are second to none and can't do enough to help you, they are a massive part of the reason I wanted to continue being involved. They are some of the most knowledgeable people I have ever met and genuinely care about each and every student. Everyone is so welcoming, and I thoroughly enjoy every visit I make.'

Will Jubb

BSc Marine & Freshwater Biology 2018,
PhD Fisheries Studies 2023

'I have harnessed an amazing connection that has evolved into an international kinship and global citizenship which I would not trade for anything! The University of Hull has remarkably become my family, home, and happy place!'

Busola Oladipo-Bamidele

MA in Education 2023

'I feel a really positive connection to the University and its community. As a student, I recall the overwhelming sense of friendliness and that aspect of Hull hasn't changed a bit!'

Honorary Graduands

Alan Raw

Doctor of the University, Honoris Causa

Ceremony 4

Tuesday 15 July | 10am

Alan Raw is a former multi award-winning BBC journalist and presenter who worked on documentaries and events including Radio1's Big Weekend and BBC Children in Need. Since leaving the BBC, Alan has deployed his talents across a broad canvas as an author writing speculative fiction that "imagines a flourishing future." He describes himself as an eco-futurist, social entrepreneur and sustainability practitioner.

Alan has launched several businesses including Pan Galactic, a space tech company offering software solutions to make space data and systems sustainable and secure, and The Creative & Cultural Organisation, which delivers creative community engagement to promote climate resilience. As founder and curator of The Creative & Cultural Organisation, Alan has curated over 120 exhibitions.

Alan is Director of The Association of Sustainability Practitioners, Co-Founding Fellow of RSA Space Network and Fellow of The Schumacher Institute for Sustainable Systems.

Jaz Ampaw-Farr

Doctor of Letters, Honoris Causa

Ceremony 6

Tuesday 15 July | 4.15pm

Multi-award-winning inspirational speaker and one of the top female motivational speakers in the UK, Jaz is a force of nature who galvanises people to take action. This world class re-framer has a unique ability to help people reframe their stories and situations, bringing transformation in their work, life and communities.

Jaz combines lessons from a challenging childhood with those from her rise to TV presenter, TEDx Speaker, stand-up comedian and Z-list reality TV star. Her authentic honesty and humour consistently empower people to think differently about leading themselves and others.

Along with her husband Ed, Jaz is co-founder of leadership development consultancy Be Human First Limited. Together, they help leaders influence, inspire and motivate their teams with greater engagement to grow their businesses and leave a lifelong legacy.

Dean Windass

Doctor of Letters, Honoris Causa

Ceremony 7

Wednesday 16 July | 10am

Dean Windass is a former professional footballer and broadcaster best known for his remarkable career spanning over two decades. Born and raised in Hull, Dean made over 700 professional appearances for clubs including Hull City, Bradford City, Middlesbrough, and Aberdeen.

A defining moment came in 2008 when he scored the winning goal in the Championship Play-Off Final at Wembley, securing Hull City's historic first-ever Premier League promotion. Since retiring, Dean has remained a prominent figure in sport and media, contributing to national platforms and raising awareness around mental health and dementia in football. His recently released autobiography, Beyond The Final Whistle, has been widely praised for its raw honesty and powerful message.

Alumni Laureates

Ceremony 5 | Tuesday 1.30pm

Usman Ali

Usman is Managing Partner at Auctor, a holding company that builds and supports businesses using emerging technologies like robotics and AI to transform legacy industries. He is a Non-Executive Director at Tortilla Mexican Grill PLC and a Board member of Kaikaku, which is reinventing the quick-service restaurant sector. Usman is also a Trustee of international children's charity Lumos. Previously, he was a Partner at Mobius Capital Partners and an Investment Analyst at New York-based equity fund Caravel Management.

James Deighton

After graduating in 2014 with a First Class Honours in Sports Coaching and Performance, James completed an MSc in Sports Science (Performance Analysis) while on placement at Hull City. After a year in Australia playing Rugby League, he returned to a full-time role at Hull City before joining Hull KR—his boyhood club. Now in his seventh season, James plays a key role in performance analysis and game planning. He was instrumental in the club's recent success, including winning the 2025 Challenge Cup.

Heather Lacey

Heather T Lacey is a multi-award-winning disability rights advocate, writer, and speaker. A University of Hull graduate, her academic research in English explored disability representation in literature. Now at Eversheds Sutherland, she leads global marketing initiatives and co-chairs the firm's disability resource group. Heather also chairs pro-Manchester's DEI sub-committee and collaborates with major organisations to advance inclusion. Her advocacy, shaped by lived experience, has earned her repeated recognition on the Disability Power 100 and Northern Power Women's Future List.

Laura Su

Laura Su graduated from the University of Hull in 2014 with a BA in Management and Business. She has since built a career in environmental innovation, becoming known for uniting stakeholders around sustainability goals and advancing the UK's fats, oils and grease (FOG) sector.

As Business Development Manager at Eco Clarity, Laura leads national efforts to recover FOG waste and turn it into renewable resources, placing Hull at the forefront of this circular economy innovation.

Daniel Swift MBE

Daniel Swift MBE, a University of Hull graduate, is Chief Executive and Artistic Director of Concrete Youth, an award-winning, internationally recognised theatre company. Currently completing a PhD, Daniel has pioneered accessible theatre, producing the UK's first West End show for audiences with profound and multiple learning disabilities. He leads inclusive touring productions, contributes to research and best-selling books, and speaks at international conferences. His trailblazing work has earned national recognition and firmly established him as a changemaker in the arts.

Proud history of Teacher Education

From its founding, the University of Hull has had educational-development at its core. Adult Education was one of the founding departments of the University, coming formally into existence on 1st January 1928. The University's first appointed Professor was in Adult Education.

The Department offered the majority of its programmes to local students, mostly off-campus and often part-time, with large programmes in Beverley, York, Grimsby, Scunthorpe and Scarborough and smaller offerings, often in response to student demand, sometimes through partnership with the Workers Educational Association, in up to a hundred villages in East Yorkshire and on the south bank of the Humber. The School of Education at the University of Hull still engages with an extensive network of Colleges across the region, enabling the delivery of degrees to students in their own locality and with a very similar reach and has an extensive series of partnerships with a very diverse range of organisations.

Teacher education has its roots in delivery both in Hull and at the Scarborough campus. Initially intending teachers gained a Certificate in Education (Cert Ed) before moves in the 1980s to offer undergraduate degrees in Education notably through a Bachelor of Education (B Ed) degree. Over the years, teacher education developed to offer qualifications across the primary, secondary and tertiary phases of Education.

Most recently, the School of Education has taken an innovative approach to preparing future teachers through two-year accelerated degrees in both Primary and Secondary Teaching Studies, which prepare students to undertake a PGCE. This is one facet of the work of a School of Education that offers undergraduate and Masters level programmes across a broad range of areas including Early Childhood, Education Studies, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), Youth Work, Community Engagement, Social Justice, Leadership and Management and Special Educational Needs Disabilities and Inclusion.

In September 2023, the first Rosalind Hollis Professor of Education for Social Justice was appointed. This post recognises a past graduate of the University, who gave a generous bequest from her estate. Rosalind G. Hollis (1931 – 2021) studied Mathematics at the University of Hull, undertaking teaching practice at Hunmanby Hall Methodist Boarding School in Filey in her final year. Throughout her adult life she was involved in work with children through both teaching and volunteering, authoring a dozen textbooks on Maths education.

In order to celebrate our history and heritage in the field of Education, the University is granting the award of Honorary Bachelor of Education to those who attained a Certificate in Education from the University of Hull in the 1980s and earlier. These students would, in later times, have been awarded a full undergraduate degree, and we recognise and celebrate their studies and subsequent achievements. Those receiving an honorary degree have variously made significant and sustained contributions to their communities, to schools and settings and to industry in the UK and around the world during the past six decades.

Careers Service

Lifelong Careers Support: Your Bright Future Awaits.

Whether you have a clear career path in mind or are still exploring your options, the University of Hull's Careers Service offers lifelong support, even after graduation.

As alumni, you have ongoing access to one-on-one appointments with a Careers Consultant to help you shape a successful future, wherever you are in your journey. You're also welcome to attend our workshops and Careers Fairs, held each autumn and spring.

Looking to refine your CV, strengthen your interview skills, or get impartial advice on your next career steps? We're here to support you every step of the way.

You'll also have continued access to Handshake, this enables you to:

- Schedule careers appointments
- Register for careers fairs and workshops
- Connect with a broad network of graduate recruiters
- Apply to exclusive job opportunities
- Access employability guides and resources

Tip: The more you engage with Handshake, the more it can work for you. Customise your profile and job search preferences, and you may even find that employers reach out directly!

The University robes

The academic dress of gown, cap and hood, which is worn by graduates, University officers and members of the academic procession, dates from medieval times.

Officers' dress

The Chancellor, Pro-Chancellors and Vice-Chancellor wear robes of blue damask silk, trimmed with gold lace. The Chancellor's sleeves are decorated with traditional ornamentation. Their caps are square, of black silk velvet, trimmed with a gold lace band and with gold bullion buttons and black (Vice-Chancellor) or gold tassels. Pro-Vice-Chancellors wear the dress robes of their degrees and square caps of black silk velvet, trimmed with silver lace bands with silver bullion buttons and black silk tassels.

Academic dress

Foundation degree candidates wear black gowns of the undergraduate pattern with diploma hoods, which are a different pattern from those of the Bachelors and Masters. Certificate and Diploma candidates (including Certificate in Education candidates) wear gowns of the undergraduate pattern. Bachelors and Masters wear black gowns with different sleeve styles depending on the degree being conferred. Their hoods are black and lined with the University silk – turquoise blue taffeta. The yoke of the Masters' hood is square and edged with the University silk. The hood of the Masters of Music is cream silk brocade. Their caps are black cloth mortar boards with black silk tassels. Doctorates in full dress wear a claret-coloured robe and hood, and a round cap of black cloth with cord and tassels, which are the same colour as the robe. Doctors of Music wear a robe and hood of cream silk brocade. The sleeves and the fronts of both robes are of the University silk. Higher Doctorates and Doctors honoris causa wear a scarlet robe and hood, with sleeves and fronts of the University silk. Their cap is round, of black velvet, with cord and tassels, which are the same colour as the robe. Professional Graduate Certificate in Education candidates wear a black gown and mortar board, black hood with three-inch turquoise blue edging. Postgraduate Certificate in Education candidates wear a black gown and mortar board, black hood with turquoise blue lining.

Hull York Medical School robes

Undergraduates and Masters wear black University of Hull gowns at the graduation ceremony. The caps worn are square, of the mortar-board pattern, of black cloth with black silk tassel.

BMedSci candidates wear a black gown of the undergraduate pattern with a black hood lined with turquoise blue silk, cowl edge faced inside with dark blue silk. BSc MedSci candidates wear a black gown of the undergraduate pattern with a black hood lined with dark blue silk, cowl edge faced inside with turquoise blue and orange silk. MBBS candidates wear a black gown of the undergraduate pattern with a black hood lined with dark blue silk, cowl edge faced inside with turquoise blue and orange silk. MSc (Taught and Research Masters) candidates wear a black Hull Masters postgraduate gown. The hood is full shaped with a black outer, lined with orange and faced inside cowl edge with turquoise blue. The cape edge is faced outside with dark blue and the neck band is black bound with turquoise blue on the top edge and dark blue on the bottom edge. MPhil (Research Masters) candidates wear a black Hull Masters postgraduate gown. The hood is a full shape with maroon outer lining and bound with dark blue. The inside cowl edge is faced with turquoise blue and the neck band is bound with maroon with turquoise blue on the top edge and dark blue on the bottom edge.

PhD (Research Doctorate) candidates wear a maroon gown with facings of dark blue and orange and sleeves faced with dark blue and top edged with orange. The hood is a full shape with a maroon outer, lined and bound with dark blue. The cowl edge is faced inside with turquoise blue and maroon and the neck band maroon, bound with turquoise blue on the top edge and dark blue on the bottom edge. The cap is a maroon bonnet with turquoise blue cord and tassels. MD (Taught Doctorate) candidates wear a dark blue gown with facings of turquoise blue and orange and sleeves faced with turquoise blue and top edged with orange. The hood is a full shape with a dark blue outer, lined and bound with turquoise blue. The cowl edge is faced inside with orange, and the neck band is bound with dark blue with orange on the top edge and turquoise blue on the bottom edge. The cap is a dark blue cloth bonnet with turquoise blue cord and tassels.

Did you know that 30 plastic bottles are recycled per gown?

All of our black ceremonial gowns are made from certified recycled materials, saving 30 bottles from polluting the earth with every gown made.

The ceremonial landmark

Our coat of arms is a hallmark of quality and a badge of honour. A symbol for a time-trusted education that prepares you for doing what's right and true: for you, for society, for the world.

Originally designed in 1928, our coat of arms has been updated for our upcoming centenary and beyond. The emblems of old are still here, and each has its own meaning: the torch embodies our motto Lampada Ferens, translated as 'carrying the light of learning'; the dove is a sign of peace and comes from the arms of Thomas Ferens, one of our founding benefactors; the wave acknowledges the importance of our home on the Humber; the ducal coronet comes from the coat of arms for the City of Hull; the rose represents Yorkshire; and the fleur-de-lys symbolises Lincolnshire.
