

University of Hull Details:

The University of Hull is a registered data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office. The registered address is:

The University of Hull
Cottingham Road
Hull
HU6 7RX

The University of Hull's Data Protection Officer is Luke Thompson he can be contacted on l.thompson3@hull.ac.uk

Admissions privacy notice

The information that you provide will be held in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and from 25 May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Your personal data will be collected and processed for the purpose of allowing you to make an application to study at the University of Hull, and for the purposes of the University updating you in relation to your application, open days, events and news updates.

Your personal data may be processed and stored by the following third-party processors, Gecko Labs Limited, Campus Management, StarRez, Enviromail, UK NARIC, Learning Records Service (LRS), UKVI and UCAS on behalf of the University of Hull, where appropriate.

The University will not disclose your personal data to any external third party, other than as set out above and/or where you have given us permission to do so, unless we are required to do so by law. The University of Hull will use your personal data to process your application, to communicate with you to provide you with information relating to your application, or for statistical purposes and internal reporting.

We may share your personal data with other internal departments including relevant academic departments, student recruitment and admissions. Where your personal data is shared internally, this will be in order to allow us to process your application and to send you student recruitment communications.

The personal data that you provide the University of Hull will be held by the University of Hull in compliance with our Retention Schedule.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation, the University must establish a legal basis for processing your personal data and communicate this to you. The legal basis for processing your personal data for an application to study at the University of Hull is that processing is necessary for the purposes of Public Task pursued by the controller or a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject.

Your right of access to your personal data

You have a right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like to request a copy of some or all of your personal data, please contact the University's Information Compliance Department We want to make sure that your personal data is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information that you think is inaccurate. Your other rights as a data subject The GDPR provides you, as a data subject, with a number of rights in relation to your personal data. You have the right to withdraw your consent where that is the legal basis of our processing, have inaccuracies in the personal data that we hold about you rectified, a right to erasure, to request that the processing of your personal data be restricted, to object to certain processing activities and to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office about the way we process your personal data.

Changes to our privacy notice

We will keep our privacy notice under regular review and we will place any updates on this web page and inform data subjects of this change.

Who do I contact if I want to know more?

For further information about your right to access information we hold about you, or to make a complaint about the way in which we are handling your personal information please visit our Governance and Information Compliance pages or contact the Governance and Information Compliance Team at dataprotection@hull.ac.uk

If you are not satisfied with our response or wish to raise a complaint with our supervisory body, you may complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.